Monklands Women's Aid

WHO ARE WE?

We are an organisation which aims to help abused women and their children (if any) and to end such abuse against women. There are 37 Women's Aid Groups in Scotland. This network is supported by Scottish Women's Aid who undertake national work, such as campaigning.

WHAT IS MEANT BY AN ABUSED WOMAN?

Any woman can be abused. She may be any woman you come in contact with. She may be your sister, your daughter, your client, your neighbour or YOU. We can offer support and information if you want to talk, or if you need information about your rights (legal, housing, money).

A SAFE PLACE TO STAY.

Monklands Women's Aid operate refuge provision – safe houses where you can stay with your children.

WHAT THEN?

Our aim is to provide an environment where you can empower yourself. If you want to find out where you stand legally we will give you information. If you need to escape we will try and find you refuge space. We will treat everything you say in confidence and will not try to tell you what to do. You will be supported in your endeavours so you can take control.
